Gabriel Safar is a lawyer specializing in art law and digital law. A Member of the Paris Bar since 2021, he offers extensive experience working with both traditional cultural institutions and innovative companies that utilize advanced technologies such as artificial intelligence, blockchain, and augmented reality.

He assists clients with navigating the complex legal landscape associated with integrating these technologies into the art and creative sectors. Gabriel advises on intellectual property rights, digital transformations, and regulatory compliance in the context of new and emerging technologies.

Holding a Master II in Contract Law from the University of Panthéon-Sorbonne (Paris I), he combines a strong academic background with hands-on experience. His expertise in both art law and digital law equips him to adeptly meet the unique requirements of professionals in the art market and technology sectors.
