

Sophie Jouniaux

Email	sjouniaux@ftpa.fr
Téléphone	+33 (0)1 45 00 86 20
Fonction	Partner

Sophie Jouniaux was admitted to the Paris Bar in 2001. She has been a partner in the firm's tax law department since 2020, which is recognised by Option Droit des Affaires, Legal 500, Décideurs, Le Point, and Best Lawyers and Chambers.

Sophie Jouniaux advises on national and international taxation for French and multinational groups in mergers and acquisitions as well as corporate restructuring. She also assists directors and employees in setting up management packages and employee profit-sharing plans. She also assists with tax audits and tax litigation.

Sophie started her professional career in 1999 with Arthur Andersen, then worked for fourteen years at Baker & McKenzie where she was promoted to Partnership in 2008 and headed the tax department of Osborne Clarke for four years.

Sophie Jouniaux holds a D.E.S.S. in Tax Law as well as a diploma of Corporate Counsel (D.J.C.E) delivered by the University of Strasbourg.

She has published numerous articles on international and French tax law and has participated in tax seminars as a speaker.

Sophie Jouniaux is a member of the IACF (Institut des Avocats Conseils Fiscaux), the IFA (International Fiscal Association) and the A3F (Association Française des Femmes Fiscalistes).